

This, That, These & Those

Practice Exercise KEY

Fill in the blanks with this / that / these / those. Pay attention to if the things are singular or plural AND near or far.

I want to describe my bedroom to you. I live in a small bedroom in an apartment with another person. We, each, have our own bedroom. There are not too many things in my room. My bed takes up most of the space. On one side of the bed is a small night table. On the other side of the bed is a desk. I am sitting on a wooden chair at the desk. My brother made this chair for me. Many family members made gifts for me. For example, my niece made these bracelets I am wearing, and my sister made this skirt I have on. These buttons here on the desk came off my sweater. I need to sew them back on. There are many small things on my desk. Of course this computer and these markers help me study.

There are also some of my things in the living room. You can see them over there. My nephew painted that picture above the TV. Those magazines on the table are mine. I like to read about fashion. That dog in front of the sofa is mine too. I like my little dog. There is a bookcase next to the sofa. Those books on the shelf belong to my roommate. She is a teacher. That photograph is of my roommate and her boyfriend. Finally, my roommate has two birds in a cage next to the bookcase. Those birds are noisy!
