

Present Progressive

Practice Exercise KEY

Use the present progressive form (BE + -ing) with one of the verbs from the box to complete each sentence. Follow the example.

dance	do	make	play	read	run
sing	sit	sleep	study	talk

EXAMPLE: Liz is making lunch now.

1--Alex and Ben are playing video games now.

2--Sam is doing his homework now.

3--We are studying English this week.

4--Nancy is sleeping in her bedroom now.

5--I am reading a book right now.

6--You are talking on the phone this minute.

7--The horses are running in the field right now.

8--The bird is singing outside my window now.

9--The girls are dancing to the music right now.

10--We are sitting in chairs at this time.